J. Jenkins Winery is located 3 miles North of Julian in a beautiful Valley with a fantastic view of Volcan Mountain. The winery is in a rustic "apple shed" on 10 acres of vineyard and orchard. Presently, we are growing Pinot Grigio, Pinot Nior and 21 different kinds of apples on our property. We are now producing "estate bottled" Pinot Grigio and apple wine (Dolcezza) as well as Syrah, Merlot and a "Nouveau". Pinot Nior will be available as our vines mature. We have plans for a new winery soon.

San Pasqual Winery is located in the San Pasqual Valley just outside Escondido. The area's rich heritage of old California history inspires the names of the wines and bottle artwork. The San Pasqual Winery brand first started in the late 1800s but was lost due to Prohibition and ownership changes. The Paul Marx family traced the winery name and acquired it; they felt there was no better way to start a winery than to pay homage to this old thriving label.
